

WASHINGTON'S TRIBUTE.
A VIRGINIA GIRL'S VIEWS OF THE NATIONAL MATTERS.

Woman as a Conductor of a Newspaper.
[Senator Martin at the Capitol]—Some News Notes.

THE BUREAU, HAPLEY BUILDING, WASHINGTON, May 29, 1895.

As to-morrow has been set apart by The Times as Ladies' Day, the idea has been adopted at this end of the line and left for to-day in the hands of a Virginia girl.
She has been, however, and who reads The Times every day.

To-morrow will be the woman's day, and truly in the years that lay behind us has woman won a title to this tribute which man now pays her in this nineteenth century. To-morrow will be woman's day, simply because she has earned it for herself.

Woman has been the guiding star of man. She has led him almost everywhere, from the fate of Anthony, to the great all the time, but never really at her best until she runs a newspaper.

Captain Trav. Daniel left for Richmond to-day, and will remain the balance of the week.

Hon. S. S. Turner left to-night for his home, but will return to this city some day next week to urge some district appointments.

Hon. E. B. Meredith came to the city to-day, and remained several hours. He left this afternoon for his home at Manassas.

Hon. W. J. Green, of the North Star State, is stopping in the city.

Mr. H. B. Russell, Sheriff of Loudoun county, accompanied by his wife, is spending a few days in the city night-seeing.
Major Ferryhough, of Charlottesville, is in the city, pushing his claims before the department.

Senator Thomas S. Martin, who has been in this city for several days, left here this afternoon for Charlottesville, to press matters of importance to the State.

Major Herman Kretz, the retiring chief appointing clerk of the Treasury Department, was yesterday presented by the clerk of his division with a large horseshoe of beautiful flowers. Major Kretz retires from the office to accept the superintendency of the Philadelphia mint.

NEWS NOTES.

Mr. Henry D. Kennedy, of Norfolk, a prominent business man of that city, is stopping a few days in this city.

Mr. A. H. Haddon, of Wilmington, N. C., is in the city on private business.

A VIRGINIA GIRL.

A LETTER FROM ROBERT E. LEE.

Written Just Before the War and Never Before Published.

Since the war it has pleased numerous writers to represent to the world and to posterity that General Lee was a faint-hearted supporter of Virginia, and that he entered into the war with great com-punctions of conscience. A similar libel is on Stonewall Jackson in the lying "Raid of Barboursville."

The published letter has never been published. Treble walls read an extract from it at the great Lee Memorial meeting in Baltimore just after General Lee's death, but the whole letter has never been made public, and as a matter of justice I have permission to print it. The Woman's Memorial Edition of The Times is the proper medium by which to convey to Virginia the truth. It was written to Annette, daughter of General Lee, and of Cedar Grove, Prince George county, Maryland, who afterward married Mr.
George H. Howard, and who was the sister of Mr. Bernard Carter, from whom the Maryland bar has never produced an able lawyer, and of Mrs. Governor Carter, of Maryland. General Lee was the cousin of General Lee, hence the confidential tone of the letter.

Yours respectfully,

BRADLEY T. JOHNSON.

Fort Mason, San Antonio P. O.,

January 1, 1891.

I was very glad to learn from your letter of the well-being of all at Cedar Grove and Goodwood. I think of the occupants of both very often, and hope some day to see them again. I may have the opportunity soon, for if the Union is dissolved I shall return to Virginia and share the fortune of my people.
But before so great a calamity befalls the country, I hope all honorable means of maintaining the Constitution and the equal rights of the people will be first exhausted. Tell your father he must not allow Maryland to be tacked on to South Carolina before the just demands of the North, and rejected. Then, if the rights guaranteed by the Constitution are denied us, and the citizens of one portion of the country are granted privileges not extended to the other, we can with a clear conscience separate. I am for maintaining all our rights—not for abandoning all for the sake of one or two rights abroad; our lands, navy, forts, dockyards, arsenals, and institutions of every kind.

Mr. Dan Murray and Mr. Fred Brown, of Baltimore, Mr. William H. Walker, of Staten Island, and Miss Campbell, of New York, are visiting the Misses Stewart, Brook Hall.

LAW AND EQUITY COURT.

The case of E. C. Goddin against the Western Union Telegraph Company for tardiness in delivering a message was being tried in the Law and Equity Court before Judge Minor and jury yesterday, and the evidence was partly heard.

The following new suits were instituted in this tribunal yesterday:
O. W. Anderson & Co. against H. S.
Lewis, damages, $100.
John Hutchison against Mary S. Ford; damages, $1,000.

Besides, several chancery suits were instituted.

CITY CIRCUIT COURT.

In the City Circuit Court yesterday the trustees of the Third-Street Baptist church applied for and were granted authority to borrow money.

The Commonwealth was awarded judgment against Thomas Newman, late treasurer of York county, and others, for $1,400.

Mr. Edward M. Plicher was admitted to the practice of law in this court yesterday.

R. H. Boshers' Sons have three second-hand pianos and two second-hand Top Squires for sale—in nice order.

FEW KNOW ABOUT THE SHAKERS OF MOUNT LEBANON.

We must not accept their peculiar religious views. We cannot enter into the spirit of their sacrifices, and therefore we do not study their habits of life.
It is not necessary to believe as they do, but we can and do respect their sincerity of purpose and the honor and uprightness which mark all their business dealings.

In one particular the Shakers excel all other sects. They are men who are in the cultivation of medicinal herbs and plants. They have made it a study for more than one hundred years. They also excel in extracting from them their characteristic essences and medicinal virtues.

It is their peculiar industry. Their lives have been devoted to it. By it they are supported. They excel in this branch as do the Monks of the Order of St. Benedict with their famous liqueur called "Benedictine."

Now, this life-long study on the part of the Shakers has not been in vain.
They have accomplished much good.
Their medicinal extracts and cordials are known throughout the world.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is probably the most useful medicine ever given to the public. It is not a cure for all diseases; it doesn't pretend to be; but one disease it will cure, and that is indigestion. It is not a cure for anything else, and a sufferer has not long to wait to see the result.
The effect is immediate. Almost the first dose will give relief, and, if continued, a permanent cure will follow.

The Shaker motto is: "Prayer is good." For this reason the Shakers put into the hands of the retail druggists who sell their remedy small trial bottles, which can be had for ten cents, so that for this small sum the reader can ascertain whether it is adapted to his case.

The New Building of the University College of Medicine.

This institution was organized and chartered, with its three independent departments of Medicine, Dentistry, and Pharmacy, several years ago.

The aim of its corporation was to establish in the city of Richmond a high-grade university for the teaching of the science of medicine in all of its departments.

Dr. Hunter McGuire, whose reputation is a national one, was chosen as president of the combined faculties. Dr.
Thomas J. Moore, Dr. Lewis M. Coward, and Mr. T. Ashley Miller were appointed as chairmen, respectively, of the Medical, Dental, and Pharmaceutical Faculties.

Its professors constitute the medical and surgical staff of the Virginia Hospital.

The college buildings were erected for this special purpose at great expense, and consist of two large and handsome structures, containing fifteen separate retires from the office to accept the superintendency of the Philadelphia mint.
